

AUBC Vision Statement

To positively promote the name of Adelaide University by being the pre-eminent Baseball Club in the South Australian Winter Baseball Competition, and to achieve this whilst promoting the opportunity for as many present and past University Students and other people to play for the Club, so that Adelaide University will continue to have a Baseball Club within its sports program for generations to come.